the Jaipur city and a large number of offices are also situated nearby this place. For SMS Hospital site and for Sudershanpura Industrial area the concentration was found to be high throughout the monitoring duration (i.e., higher than 30 µg/m³ for silence zone and 120 µg/m³ for industrial zone). This might be due to the lack of open configuration of junction, which results the poor dispersion of air pollutants.